Vote for a brighter future for our students

Vote YES ON 2

We have the opportunity to make meaningful change for our students by removing the high-stakes MCAS graduation requirement. This will allow teachers to focus on real learning rather than teaching to the test, reduce anxiety for students, and allow for more comprehensive evaluations of success, rather than a single number defining students.

If you vote Yes on Two, the MCAS won't disappear. Instead of a high-stakes graduation requirement, it will be used as an evaluation tool. This is critical for giving power back to parents, allowing teachers to measure the success of the whole child, and reducing the unnecessary stress our students face.

Voting Yes on Two will:

- ✓ Retain high standards without the high stakes
- ✓ Empower teachers and parents
- ✓ Reduce anxiety for students
