

“I’m a black NAZI!”

—Mark Robinson, candidate for Governor
[CNN, 9/19/2024]

The GOP nominee to head North Carolina’s schools [Michele Morrow] is a QAnon conspiracy theorist

[Media Matters for America, 3/11/2024]

“...Morrow made disturbing suggestions about executing prominent Democrats for treason, including ... North Carolina Gov. Roy Cooper”

[CNN, 3/15/2024]

Mark Robinson, candidate for Governor, and Michele Morrow, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Michele Morrow & Mark Robinson:

Too Dangerous For Our Schools

MORROW & ROBINSON ARE

TOO EXTREME FOR NORTH CAROLINA

X Spewing Dangerous Rhetoric:

Morrow spreads QAnon conspiracy theories about school shootings being staged, 9/11 being an inside job, and bizarre claims linking Hitler and President Obama. Robinson has called himself a “black NAZI” and written that “slavery is not bad... I wish they would bring it back.”¹

X Supporting Violence:

Robinson said recently at a church, “Some folks need killing!” Morrow advocated for a military coup at the January 6th insurrection and has called for the death of Gov. Roy Cooper.²

X Eliminating the Department of Education:

Robinson and Morrow would destroy our schools by eliminating the state Board of Education and rejecting over $1 billion in school funding, threatening taxpayers and our whole economy. Robinson's radical plan to cut science and history from elementary schools will set our kids back and jeopardize their future.³
