We Can't Trust Michele Morrow or Mark Robinson with Our Children's Education

With their shared extremism and opposition to public education, it's no surprise that Robinson has endorsed Morrow in the past. Their policies will put public schools and our children's future at risk.

Too Extreme for Our Public Schools:

- ✗ Michele Morrow and Mark Robinson will reject funding for public education, which would lead to larger class sizes, decreased teacher pay, and teacher shortages.<sup>1</sup>
- ✗ Morrow and Robinson would eliminate the State Board of Education, and Robinson has said that schools "don't need to be teaching social studies" or "teaching science" before sixth grade.<sup>2</sup>
- ✗ Morrow cruelly writes off students with disabilities, claiming they will "never be able to compete," showing a shocking disregard for the most vulnerable kids in our schools.<sup>3</sup>

Too Extreme for Us:

- ✗ Morrow has called for the deaths and executions of Gov. Cooper, Pres. Biden, and former Pres. Obama.<sup>4</sup>
- ✗ Morrow participated in the January 6 insurrection. While outside our nation's Capitol, she recorded herself saying, "If you're going to participate in fraud... we're coming after you".<sup>5</sup>
- ✗ Morrow works with a group that spreads dangerous conspiracy theories about school shootings being staged, 9/11 being an inside job, and bizarre claims linking Hitler and Obama.<sup>6</sup>
- ✗ When asked about his social media posts, which include denying the Holocaust, threatening political violence, and dabbling in QAnon conspiracy theories, Robinson said, "I'm not ashamed of anything that I post."<sup>7</sup>
